POLICY STATEMENT

The Catholic Church Endowment Society Inc. (CCES) and the separately incorporated entities are committed to the corporate management of Occupational Health, Safety and Welfare (OHS&W) and Injury Management (IM) of the Catholic Church Self Insured License (The License) by developing and implementing a planned and systematic approach to the management of safety.

The Catholic Church aims to minimize the risk of injury and disease to all our employees and all other persons in our worksites by ensuring that the OHS&W and IM system is implemented, monitored, reviewed and continually improved.

OBJECTIVES

The objectives of this policy are to ensure:

- a safe work environment is provided where hazards are identified, assessed and controls actioned to eliminate and/or minimise any risks to health and safety.
- controls implemented to manage hazards are monitored and reviewed.
- genuine consultation and communication with employees occurs; enabling opportunity and providing encouragement to contribute to the decision making process related to OHS&W and IM matters.
- all employees receive appropriate information, instruction, training & supervision to safely carry out their work.
- effective management of workplace injuries and diseases is in accordance with the Workers Rehabilitation and Compensation Act 1986.
- a fair and equitable management of all Workers Compensation claims
- compliance with industry related legislation; Acts, Regulations, Approved Codes of Practices, and Australian Standards called up in legislations. For example, Building Code of Australia, Child Protection Act 1993

STRATEGIES

The Catholic Church will achieve the objectives of this policy by developing an OHS&W and Injury Management Plan that is reviewed annually.

• Ensure they are not affected by alcohol or any drugs that would endanger their own or any other person’s health and safety.

FUNCTIONS and RIGHTS

Health & Safety Committees
Where a worksite has established a health and safety committee the functions of that forum are to:

• Facilitate co-operation between an employer and the employees in initiating, developing, carrying out and monitoring measures designed to ensure health, safety and welfare of employees
• Assist in resolving health, safety and welfare issues at the worksite
• Assist in the formulation, review and dissemination (in appropriate languages and format) of health, safety and welfare, policies, procedures and practices
• Consult with the employer on any proposed changes to the work, the workplace and policies, procedures and practices
• Review developments in the field of rehabilitation of injured workers and those who have a disability
• Assist in the return to work of employees who have suffered a work related injury and those who have a disability

If a Health and Safety Committee is not established in a worksite then the site must use general staff meetings to carry out the above functions of a health and safety committee.

Health and safety representatives (HSR’s)
CCES worksites acknowledge the legal rights and functions of elected HSR’s and support them to carry out their role of representing a work group effectively

Where a worksite has an elected HSR they will ensure that the HSR is entitled to:
• Inspect the workplace at any time
• Discuss any matter affecting the health, safety & welfare at the worksite
• Accompany an Inspector from SafeWork SA during an inspection of the worksite
• Investigate complaints on health, safety and welfare made by employees of the work group
• Have access to information regarding risks to health and safety that may arise at the worksite
• Have access to information about the health and safety of employees with the employee's consent
• Raise any issue affecting the health, safety or welfare of members of the work group with the employer
• Be present at any interview about health and safety at the request of an employee in the work group
• Be consulted about proposed changes to the work, the workplace, plant or substances used
• Be consulted about policies and procedures in the workplace
• Issue a Default Notice to require that action is taken to resolve a health and safety problem
• Direct work to cease if there is a direct threat to the health & safety of an employee
• Be provided with facilities and assistance to enable the HSR to perform his or her functions under the Act

HSR’s do not have any legal liability for their actions or lack of action on any matter in their role as HSR. However misuse of their powers may lead to prosecution

MONITOR
The effectiveness of this policy will be monitored by:
• Review of overall OHS&W and IM performance through the Self Insured Governing Council
• Monitoring and reviewing the effectiveness of the Catholic Church Safety Manual policies and procedures

TRAINING
All employees will be briefed/trained in the requirements of the OHS&W Policy during induction. When this policy is amended existing employees will be informed.

REVIEW
This document shall be reviewed annually in consultation with the sector forums and the Self Insured Governing Council. Changes in legislation may require earlier review and subsequent amendment or re-issue.
